

Self-RAG Autonomous Correction Protocol

The self-correcting RAG workflow is powered by LangGraph state machines. When a user query is received, candidate responses generated by OpenAI GPT-4o undergo self-critique. If the critique confidence score is below 0.85, the query is automatically rewritten and re-retrieved. The maximum number of self-correction loop iterations is set to 3. This iterative refinement mechanism eliminates incomplete and irrelevant responses.

Author: Mohammad Subhan Pasha